

Presbytery of Missouri River Valley

Manual of Administrative Operations

Containing By-laws and Standing Rules

Adopted February 20, 2016
Effective July 1, 2016

Bylaws of the Presbytery

I. Name and Authority

A. The name of this Council is the Presbytery of Missouri River Valley.

B. The Bylaws of the Presbytery are subordinate to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (USA). In any matter in which these Bylaws conflict with the Constitution, the requirements of the Constitution shall prevail.

II. Purpose

The purpose of the Presbytery is to provide that the Word of God may be truly preached and heard; to provide that the Sacraments may be rightly administered and received; and to nurture a covenant community of disciples of Christ (G-3.0101) in the region and among the congregations under the Presbytery's jurisdiction.

III. Members and Commissioners

A. Permanent Members of the Presbytery are those teaching elders enrolled as members through the Presbytery's regular procedures.

B. Temporary Members of the Presbytery are:

1. Teaching elders who are members of other councils or communions, serving congregations under the jurisdiction of this Presbytery, enrolled for the duration of their service;

2. Ruling elders serving as officers of the Presbytery (Section IV) or as Chairs of Presbytery commissions and committees (Sections VII and VIII).

3. Ruling elders commissioned to particular service to congregations of this Presbytery, for the duration of their commission.

C. All members of the Presbytery, permanent and temporary, have all the rights and responsibilities of membership.

D. Each Session shall commission at least one ruling elder member of its congregation to meetings of the Presbytery. Additional commissioners may be allocated to Sessions by the procedure specified in the Standing Rules.

IV. Officers

A. The two constitutional offices of the Presbytery have those duties defined by the Book of Order:

1. Moderator
2. Stated Clerk

B. In addition, for purposes of leadership and continuity, the Presbytery has these officers:

1. Vice Moderator, who presides at meetings of the Presbytery in the absence of or at the request of the Moderator, who assumes such duties as the Moderator requests, and holds other responsibilities described in this Manual.

2. Treasurer, who assists the Stewardship of Resources Committee in supervision of the Presbytery's financial affairs, oversees accounts and financial statements, ensures that appropriate financial systems and controls are in place, ensures that record-keeping and accounts meet the requirements of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church (USA) and relevant statutory bodies, and ensures compliance with relevant legislation.

C. Only teaching elders and ruling elders may serve as Moderator, Stated Clerk, or Vice Moderator. If the Treasurer is not ordained as a presbyter, then that person will have the privilege of voice at all meetings of the Presbytery and of the Leadership Team but will not be a voting member of either.

V. Meetings

A. The Presbytery will hold four stated meetings per year.

1. Dates, times, and locations of the meetings are set by the Leadership Team.

2. Upon reasonable notice to members and commissioners, date, time, or location of a meeting may be changed by the Leadership Team.

B. The Presbytery may be called to a special meeting by the Moderator, in consultation with the Vice Moderator and the Stated Clerk. The Moderator may call a meeting as needed, and will call a meeting if requested in writing by two teaching elder members of Presbytery and two ruling elders who are members of different churches.

C. Quorum: The quorum for any meeting of the Presbytery shall be twelve, six ruling elders from at least three different churches and six teaching elder members.

D. Cancellation: a stated or called meeting may be canceled.

1. In the case of inclement weather, the Moderator and Stated Clerk shall consult and determine if the meeting should be canceled. Reasonable attempt shall be made to inform members and commissioners of the meeting's cancellation. A canceled stated meeting shall be rescheduled for no sooner than ten days' later and notice shall be provided.

2. A called meeting may be canceled if the Moderator and Stated Clerk agree that the business for which it was called is moot, or if those who requested the meeting agree that it should be canceled.

E. Docket

1. The docket of called meetings shall include only matters included in the call.

2. The docket of stated meetings shall be prepared by the Leadership Team.

F. Expenses

1. A commissioner's reasonable expenses for attendance at meetings of Presbytery should be reimbursed by the Session issuing the commission.

2. If a teaching elder member or ruling elder member needs reimbursement from the Presbytery for expenses to attend a meeting, the member shall request such reimbursement through the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery.

VI. Leadership Team

A. Mission

The Presbytery's Leadership Team will be a planning group and a resource which focuses on human resources, capital and productive capacity to assist and serve churches within the Presbytery in the most efficient and productive ways possible. Visionary thinking led by spirituality and discernment will drive the process.

IX. Amendment

These bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of presbyters present and voting at a meeting of the Presbytery, provided that notice has been given of proposed amendments. This notice shall be either publication of the proposed amendment at the previous meeting of Presbytery or distribution of the proposed amendment to all members and sessions of the Presbytery not less than two weeks before the meeting.

Standing Rules of the Presbytery

I. Rules Governing Meetings

A. Docket

1. The docket of a stated meeting of the Presbytery shall be drafted by a design team consisting of the Moderator, Vice Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Presbytery, the Presbyter for Congregational Vitality, a member of the Faith Education and Leadership Development Committee, and the pastor and/or other representative(s) of the host congregation.

2. The draft docket is presented to the Leadership Team for approval not less than two weeks before the meeting.

3. The docket shall include worship, which should ordinarily include the celebration of the Lord's Supper, and should give priority to learning, building of relationships, and taking action, rather than reporting past activities.

B. Parliamentary procedure

1. The parliamentary authority is that specified by the Book of Order or, if none specified, the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

2. The Moderator of the Presbytery rules on questions of procedure.

3. The Stated Clerk serves as the Presbytery's parliamentarian.

4. Unless the Presbytery provides otherwise, speeches addressing a question in debate shall be limited to three minutes.

C. Redress of Imbalance (G-3.0301)

1. Annually, as soon as possible after Sessions have submitted their membership reports, the Stated Clerk shall ascertain the parity of teaching and ruling elder members and commissioners. The Clerk shall consider all teaching elders in active service, as well as those who are retired and serving congregations and who are retired and continue to attend meetings of the Presbytery; and one ruling elder commissioner per session as well as those ruling elders entitled to voice and vote at meetings (Bylaws, III.B.).

2. If the number of ruling elders equals or exceeds the number of teaching elders, there is no imbalance and no action is needed.

3. If the number of teaching elders exceeds the number of ruling elders, then the Stated Clerk shall propose a means to redress the imbalance by asking Sessions to elect additional commissioners. The Clerk shall give priority to those congregations with more than 350 members; those congregations with more than one teaching elder installed to permanent service; those congregations who regularly participate in the mission of the Presbytery; and those congregations whose membership may help create diverse representation within the life of the Presbytery. The Clerk may consult with the Committee on Representation for guidance, as needed.

II. Rules Governing Subordinate Entities of the Presbytery

A. Representation

1. As the Nominating Committee is seeking members to nominate for election, they should consult with the Committee on Representation for guidance.

2. Before presenting candidates for election to the Presbytery, the Nominating Committee shall inform the Committee on Representation, who shall ascertain if the Nominating Committee was diligent in its attempt to seek diversity in candidates.

B. Electronic Decision-making

1. Recognizing there are times when the various entities of the Presbytery need to make decisions between scheduled or stated meetings as well as to act swiftly in other occasions, the Leadership Team, Committees, Commissions, and other Presbytery groups (in lieu of calling a special meeting) may choose to use electronic forms of communication.

2. Chairpersons shall make a good faith effort to contact all members through e-mail, telephone, text, fax, and/or other electronic means.

3. When at least a majority of the members respond in the affirmative (or the negative) then that decision will be considered the action of the body.

4. Such action shall be reported to the next meeting of the body and recorded in its minutes.

C. Intentional and Implied Resignation

1. There are times when those elected are unable to continue in their service to the Presbytery. These individuals should communicate their resignation to the Stated Clerk.

2. If during a calendar year an individual is absent without notice from three meetings, this may be interpreted by the Chair as an implied resignation, recorded in the minutes, and reported to the Stated Clerk. The Stated Clerk then notifies the Presbytery of the vacancy and refers the matter to the Nominating Committee.

III. Rules Governing Records

A. Records of Sessions

1. The Stated Clerk of the Presbytery shall coordinate the general administrative review of records of sessions (G-3.0108a).

2. The Commission on Ministry or the Presbytery itself may require special administrative review (G-3.0108b).

3. Only the Presbytery by majority vote at a meeting, the Presbytery's Permanent Judicial Commission, or an administrative commission specifically charged with that purpose and power may direct a Session to take particular action (G-3.0108c).

B. Presbytery's temporary records

1. The Presbytery keeps files of papers related to teaching elder members, inquirers, candidates, and sessions at its office. These files may be retained in perpetuity. Those under jurisdiction of the Presbytery have the right to view their files; such right is surrendered when transferring to another jurisdiction or renouncing jurisdiction.

2. When an investigating committee of the Presbytery determines not to file charges and its decision is not overturned (D-10.0303), it shall surrender its records to the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery, who shall retain them for three years, after which they shall be destroyed.

IV. Rules Governing Communications with Other Councils

A. All formal communications between the Presbytery and other Councils is through the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery. Formal communications are such things as requests for waivers from constitutional requirements; transfers of membership; notifications in judicial process; requests for official presbytery action; and other similar matters.

B. When a Session or an entity of the Presbytery wishes the Presbytery to overture the Synod or the General Assembly to take some action, the proposal shall be presented through the Stated Clerk of the Presbytery. The Stated Clerk shall provide advice on format, deadlines, and procedures, without bias as to the merit or advisability of the request.

C. When another Presbytery requests the concurrence of this Presbytery on an overture to the Synod or the General Assembly, the Stated Clerk shall inform the Presbytery through some appropriate means within a reasonable time, so that Sessions or entities of the Presbytery may initiate action for concurrence.

D. When the Presbytery receives proposed amendments to the Constitution, the Stated Clerk shall advertise the nature of those proposed amendments and invite interested persons to provide information on their merit. The Stated Clerk may further invite the cooperation of the Faith Education and Leadership Development Committee to create events to disseminate relevant information and discuss theological concerns before the meeting at which the Presbytery votes on these proposals.

V. Commissioners to Other Councils

VI. Amendment

A. These standing rules may be amended at any meeting of the Presbytery by a majority vote of those presbyters present and voting.

B. The Presbytery may, by two-thirds vote, determine at any time to suspend the Standing Rules.
